

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 6, 2016

FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

CONTACT: Jan L. Herrington

(225) 295-3125

janh@positive-results.net

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CIVIL ENGINEERS, LOUISIANA CHAPTER, AWARDS

RHAOUL A. GUILLAUME, SR., P.E., F. ASCE, LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

The Louisiana Chapter of the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE) awarded the prestigious Lifetime Achievement Award for 2016 to Rhaoul A. Guillaume, Sr., P.E., F.ASCE, President of GOTECH, Inc. Guillaume also earned the 2016 ASCE Lifetime Achievement Award bestowed by the Baton Rouge chapter of ASCE.

As President of GOTECH, Inc., a civil engineering firm, Rhaoul Guillaume, Sr.'s impact on the engineering profession is far-reaching. In his early career, he represented the owner on the construction site of the Louisiana Superdome. He was recipient of the Louisiana Engineering Society's 2011 Andrew M. Lockett Award for Distinguished Civil Service by an Engineer. GOTECH was named the Baton Rouge Business Report's "Company of the Year" in 2013.

--more--

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CIVIL ENGINEERS.../Add 1

Guillaume and GOTECH led many projects that won national recognition and awards. He served for seven (7) years on the LAPELS board and was an active member of several engineering societies, holding leadership roles in each. Outside of engineering, Guillaume served on many boards including the Baton Rouge Community College Foundation Board, Iberia Bank and more. He is actively involved with St. Jude Catholic Church.

For additional information about Rhaoul A. Guillaume, Sr. and GOTECH, INC., visit www.gotech-inc.com.

#30

Cutline:
Rhaoul A. Guillaume, Sr., P.E., F.ASCE